Dear David,

Thank you for the assistance and cooperation in the recent audit of your records covering the fourth quarter of the fiscal year 2015. The purpose of this letter is to provide you with results of the audit, and any recommendations for changes in financial procedures. Any suggestions would be to strengthen internal controls for efficiency and accountability.

Our audit is based on testing of items, therefore would not disclose all irregularities in your system if any.

All cash counts balanced with the exception of the Administration front desk due to a missing receipt. Monthly reports balanced to the General Ledger for each department.

Bank statements in the Inmate Trust Fund and Commissary Fund are up to date. A letter was sent to the Texas Commission on Jail Standards in regards to the annual audit of these accounts which balanced.

During this quarterly audit, an inventory audit was performed due to you retiring. We wish you well in this new chapter of your life. The items missing are a thermal imager ($3,900) and digital camera ($100), these items cannot be located and are therefore missing. Per attachment is an explanation of missing items.

Please keep this letter as it is in lieu of stamping our approval on the original records and documents that were examined.

We extend our appreciation to the Sheriff Office staff that assisted and cooperated with us during the course of this audit. If you have any questions, please give us a call.

Sincerely yours,

Angela Rater

MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 21, 2016

TO: Wise County Auditor

FROM: Kevin Benton, Chief Deputy

REF: County Property

Our office is missing a thermal imager, County ID Number 13202. This item is designed to mount on a patrol vehicle spotlight and was assigned to unit number 299. I have been advised by Sheriff's Office maintenance staff, this thermal imager had been removed from the patrol car due to being nonfunctional. It was ultimately placed in a box at the shop on July 17, 2015. On this date the maintenance staff conducted a shop cleaning which entailed the removal and disposal of a load of scrap material and metal. These items were then delivered to the dump. The maintenance staff has advised this was actually the last time they remember seeing this thermal imager and further believe it was probably inadvertently discarded at the dump with the scrap materials. A complete and thorough search has been conducted of the property; however, this specific thermal imager has not been located.

After interviewing the maintenance staff and at the conclusion of a complete and thorough search, I concur this thermal imager was undoubtedly discarded and is no longer in the possession of the Wise County Sheriff's Office. Please advise if I can be of further assistance in this unfortunate matter.

In reference to the Samsung camera, I believe that item was in the possession of the Wise County IT staff. I am attaching an email from Stephen Melton regarding this camera. This may explain why the camera was likely at the Sheriff' Office building.

Diana regarding the Samsung camera that we talked about on the phone, I think this was originally Randy's. We packed a bunch of his old stuff in boxes and moved it to the court house, we haven't been able to find it yet. If possible could we mark this item unlocated until I can find it? Please make a note that I will try to locate it so that the SO can finish up there inventory. Thanks for the help.

Inmate Trust Funds

Dear Mr. Wood,

On December 17, 2015 the Wise County Auditor's Office conducted an audit of the commissary and inmate trust fund accounts ending the fiscal year September 30, 2015. Bank Statements are being reconciled monthly and are current. It is our understanding that the new accounting software that was purchased is easier to maintain the reconciliations. It is strongly suggested that this department be cross trained in all areas.

Commissary expenditures were made in accordance with Local Government Code, Section 351.0415.7

If you have any questions, or need any other information please call me.

Sincerely,
