Doug:

In January you were contacted by Asset Control to set-up your annual inventory audit, February was not a good time for you and you agreed on the date of March 21st. As you are aware this office and the Asset Office were going to perform the audits together. Both offices went to Boyd at the scheduled time and date, you failed to show up and did not call to reschedule. This was very disrespectful of you. We are always trying to call or email you to please come in and sign bills so that I can pay them, we should not have to do this. In February you stated that you would come in once a month. We have no problems with any other Constable's but you. It is your responsibility to take care of your purchases. I will not continue to pay your invoices until you have signed and the inventory/financial audit are done (which is scheduled for April 18th). I also will not be consistently calling or emailing you to take care of your County business.
