To Our Tenants,

As you may have noticed by the letterhead, we have a new name. The business you knew as Trio Communications is becoming RLJ Tower Leasing, Inc. This change took effect on April 8th, 2014, at a board meeting where the directors decided to change the general partnership to an S corporation. Aside from our company name, nothing has changed, it is business as usual. The company is still managed and owned by Richard Self, Lynn Self and John Self.

We are writing today to explain how this legal entity name change will impact remittance and contracts.

Remittance: Please update your system with our new company name. Our Federal Tax Number has changed please find enclosed a W-9 from RLJ Tower Leasing, Inc.

New FEIN: 46-5495353.

Lease Agreements: Existing contracts remain in effect as they are not impacted by the legal entity name change. Please file a copy of this notification with your lease agreement with Trio Communications.

Sincerely,

John Self
President
